Antique Tractors Preserve Agricultural Heritage at 2018 Empire Farm Days

Seneca Falls, NY. New York's antique tractor clubs will put their refurbished "old iron" of all makes and models on exhibit August 7-9, 2018 Empire Farm Days at Rodman Lott and Son Farms in Seneca Falls, NY.

The Cockshutt Antique Tractors Club, Finger Lakes Antique Power Club, Finger Lakes Two-Cylinder Club, International Harvester Collectors Club Chapter 35 of NY, and Bellona International Harvester Antique Tractor Club have members representing areas across New York State.

Members of the 20-plus-year-old Finger Lakes Two-Cylinder Club include old iron enthusiasts from Newark, Rochester, Canandaigua, Geneva, and Penn Yan, NY.

The Finger Lakes Antique Tractor Club exhibit at the 2018 show will feature tractors of all brands that members use for pull competitions, plow days, parades and fun rides.

The Cockshutt Antique Tractor Club represents tractors named after entrepreneur James G. Cockshutt who opened the Brantford Plow Works in Ontario, Canada, in 1877.

The International Harvester Collectors Club Chapter 35 of NY is the New York State representative of the national association for those who fancy the "red power" of the International brand. The state club will have licensed apparel for all ages for purchase along with their treasured restored tractors on exhibit.

The Bellona International Harvester Antique Tractor Club based in Yates County, NY, will exhibit tractors with a variety of antique implements at the 2018 Empire Farm Days.

Empire Farm Days is the largest outdoor agricultural trade show in the Northeastern U.S. The event includes agricultural and rural living equipment, working equipment and crops demonstrations, test driving, products, live horse and cattle demonstrations, safety information, and much more with more than 600 exhibitors and vendors.
